

AsktheJudge.info is a cutting edge, interactive educational tool that provides teens, parents and educators current information about laws and court decisions that affect teens and tweens.

The only site of its kind, AsktheJudge addresses the complete spectrum of teen legal issues, from family and education to health and Internet law.

Thousands of teens, parents and educators turn to AsktheJudge for information and assistance when confronting numerous kinds of teen legal issues including school discipline and students' rights, juvenile and criminal charges, incorrigible teens, substance abuse, health issues (physical, mental and sexual health for teens), cyberbullying and other forms of online harassment.

Average Monthly Traffic and Site Info

Unique Visits: 30,150

Page Views: 45,000

Total Visits: 32,500

Average Number of Questions
Answered Monthly: 280

% of visitors from U.S.: 90%

Trending topics (popular Q&As/topics
at this time):

- cell phone privacy rights at school & with police
- shoplifting
- truancy
- expunging a juvenile record
- cyberbullying
- smoking incense
- sexting

Advertising

The AsktheJudge Resource Directory provides a list of resources for teens and parents in every state. The resources directly relate to the needs and requests for assistance from AsktheJudge users. The directory contains legal, mental health, educational and other resources. To include your business in the Resource Directory, click here.

CONTACT: For more information about our Resource Directory and to sign up, click here. If you are interested in other advertising options, contact us by email at contact@askthejudge.info.